23 January 1966 - Tampa Bay SCC Fun Rallye - Paul Neuman, Rallymaster.
(Sunday) Starts at Kash-N-Karry Parking Lot, Westshore &
Kennedy Blvds, Tampa. Registration - 1:00 PM; first car off at 1:30 PM.

Editor's note

On Friday, 17 December 1965, the Suncoast Region, Porsche Club of America, held the monthly meeting at Cutler's Motors in Sarasota. Maybe it was the Christmas season, but at Cutler's, no one from that area attended. The meeting, however was well attended by the usual active members.

Plans are being made to move the meetings around the Region to accommodate those members who cannot always attend the meetings in the Tampa area.

Bill Mangold has canvassed various organizations for film presentations and general car talk. These ideas should promote some interest as well as participation in our meetings. All members are urged to come forward with any home movies or slides to present at future meetings.

On the 12th of December, starting at 1:00 PM from Ward's in Tampa, PCA And MacDill Sports Car Clubs sponsored a Straight Forward Rallye. The Corvair Club were co-sponsors. This joint effort by three clubs proved to be a huge success. There were 25 cars entered. Entries came from as far away as Orlando. In fact, 1st place was won by a pair of Martians or Martin Sports Car Clubians, I mean members.

Bring your wife, girlfriend or whatever the case maybe. The main point of interest at this meeting will be the up-coming Autocross at Osceola Race Track on 23 January 1966, sponsored by the Martin Sports Car Club of Orlando. It is my hope that all Suncoast PCA members can attend this event as a team.
