We had a great Christmas and New Year's Eve in Lakeland and we hope you were blessed with love and happiness too.

Suncoast has many events for February and March on the calendar. Please check the Profile articles for the events that appeal to you and be there!!

The Christmas/40th Anniversary party was great. If you missed the festivities, you can purchase commemorative wine glasses from the Goodie Store. Ruben, Janet and Wesley Ledesma were in attendance and presented the 40th year certificate framed for hanging by Janet. Thanks to the Ledesma's for being there at a busy time of the year.

The major Suncoast Region annual awards were announced with the following recipients: H. Dean Rowe award to Mike Kwasin, Dutch Howard Award shared by Micki and Brad Camp—Sue and Mike Mackenzie. These awards are earned through continued and unselfish service to the Suncoast Region members.

Finally, I must admit there is one other award that no one wants to be awarded, but alas somehow the previous recipient always is anxious to be rid of this ugly one. The award is a broken piston named "Scheisse an der Wand." However, over Labor Day the Riley's, Briest's, Gerry Curts and Suzy Holley attended Rennefest in Atlanta. Never suspecting that an out of region event would be considered for the award, I had no clue that my adventure would be reported for consideration. While on the Rally a non-participant turned in front of me unexpectedly, causing me to make a split second decision about car damage or people damage. Of course, I chose people over car and preformed a very astute escape that saved an unknown, unaware person, Bill and I from bodily harm. I am issuing a warning to all participants that I am watching you and so are others. I will gather evidence and you may be the owner of the award next year.

Just a few words about autocrossing: if you want more practice, contact Gulfcoast Autocrossers LTD.—Dave Hutter 19700 Skipper Rd., N. Ft. Meyers, FL 33917; 941/731-1550; Fax 941/731-1893; e-mail: dhutter@aol.com. Many of our members have participated in their events. The events are well organized, inexpensive and include lunch. If you have attended Zonefest in the last two years, you have seen them in action. The site is in the Ft. Meyers area and is in good condition. Call or write for their new season booklet at the above numbers.

I wish to congratulate Dave Cook on two great years as our president. To thank him the board members, on behalf of the membership, presented him with a Porsche Crest pinkie ring at the Christmas Party.

February 2001 Membership Report

FIRST TIMES: Man how sweet or how troublesome can first times be. Things that come to mind, first car, first Porsche, first love, first wife, first job, first child being born, first boat, sale of first boat, first million dollars earned (right Lou), etc. I am sure we all could add our own items that we remember when talking about firsts, some sweet some not, some for discussion at a latter time, but we all have them.

Today I add a first to me list, the first report as membership chairman. I truly consider it a privilege to give back to our club in any small way that I can. I also remember when I joined Suncoast back in 1989 the new member chairman called me on the phone to welcome me aboard, really nice to get that first club call.

We have 16 new members to welcome to our club, new members take an opportunity to add to your first times, your first Porsche club event. Make it a board meeting, social event, autocross, driver's education, or any other sponsored event. Believe me this first is going to remain a great memory. All of you new 996 and Boxster owners, if this is your first Porsche come out, you now own a piece of Porsche history and you are a member of a terrific community. Please take the time at the next event to introduce yourselves, and current members, if you see a new face at any event take the time to introduce yourself and maybe you will be the first club contact a new member receives. If any new members need information on how to participate or a clearer understanding of any club event feel free to contact me to get a comfort level for participation.

It's a world of firsts, add one!

The Addict's Report

By MICHAEL IRWIN

Some times while out with business colleagues or customers I'll forget that I am not in a crowd of Porsche nuts. I'll find myself exclaiming, "OOH! A 73 S" or "Nice tail on that SC" and I'll get blank looks or raised eyebrows wondering what in the name of Cesars Cousin I'm talking about. But sometimes I'll get "That ain't a 73 " or "I think that's a Weisach edition" and I'll suddenly realize that I'm not alone in this world. Or, sometimes a person standing beside me will over hear me say "928" or "RS" and they will chime in with their story of that car they used to have or the one they just purchased. Common bonds are great. Porsches are such a great common bond. you might get the friendly jousting over models abilities but Porsche lovers, Porsche nuts, and Porsche addicts are always friends.

Well, almost always friends.

It was early in the spring of 1967. I had just finished my last assignment with the USSSMA (UNITED STATES SUPER SECRET MISSION AGENCY) and was prepping for a little semi retirement before I set out to climb Mount Everest. While relaxing for a spell I decided to rent a little apartment in downtown PROGUE and buy a used 911 to hop around the countryside. But buying a EUROPEAN 911 meant the car had been driven hard and used like a mule. So, the first order of attaining peaceful winding country road bliss, meant a visit for some up grades and maintenance at HANS AND FRANZ'S PORSCHE EMPORIUM. Hans was a fine fellow, who had lost his voice in a bizarre peanut butter accident as a child. So with this handicap and being shunned by the vocal kids in the neighborhood, Hans had devoted his child hood to tinkering with all things mechanical. By the time he had reached his 12th birthday, Hans was a legend throughout Europe, and known as the 'Horsepower King'. Once rumored to have gotten a YUGO to exceed school zone speed limits.

Franz, on the other hand, was a bitter brother with a loathing for all things PORSCHE. His entry into finer German automobiles was fueled only by his dying mother's request to always look after his silent brothers well being. With repeat business as a consequence, Franz had begun a system of sabotage, sometimes even stooping low enough to use non-original equipment on repairs. Sometimes even substituting (YIKES!!) VOLKSWAGON parts. Without realizing the danger I was in, I paid for my repairs, gave my rear-engine baby a quick 'once-over' and headed for the country side, never realizing the danger I was in.

The car felt good, almost new the popping through the duel webers was gone, the shimmy from the old warn tie rods was a memory and the new tires on all four corners felt like big wads of bubble gum, sticking to the road. Up and over hill after hill, through S curves, dodging wandering livestock, honking at peasant chicks. What a beautiful day it seemed, but underneath me, slowly eclipsing the bright sunshine of my day, were Franz's used wheel bearings, installed diabolically to foil a Porsche addicts joy ride. My years of training in the USSSMA had taught me 2 things, first, NEVER underestimate a female Russian spy's arm wrestling ability and second, never mix Franz and bearings before a joy ride. But, my addiction to these little cars had robbed me of my good sense and the next hill I was cresting was possibly my last. As the steering wheel began to shake like my Uncle Wilbur before his afternoon toddy, the ditch to my right seemed to have a huge magnet in it as my car was yanked into the weeds and brush. Down to the bottom of the ditch and then back up the opposing side, sending me airborne over 2 cows and a goat eating lazily in the soft pasture.

I spent most of that afternoon and evening digging my car out of cow pies without an ounce of bitterness. Even though I know every Porsche mechanic is not my friend, every one of these cars is and I had, at the very least, spent most of the day behind the wheel of my greatest addiction.

Faith Children's Home

By Dave Cook

Sixty two shining faces greeted our Suncoasters when they arrived at the Faith Children's home on December 8th. It was clearly evident that the excitement was high and a festive mood was in the air.

As the evening began, the children sang Christmas songs and ended with their rendition of "The First day of Christmas", acting out each day. Then the children came into the audience, selected a partner, and once again sang and acted out each day with their new partners.

The children were then treated to a traditional Christmas dinner with all the trimmings, and then later gathering around the tree where Santa was seated with all the presents. Linda Hallmark assisted by Karen Selzer, instructed the children to remain seated on the floor while Suncoasters passed out the presents. The tiny children also sat on Santa's lap and received gifts from him. On the count of three, all the children frantically opened their presents with squeals of delight and paper flying! What a night for the children, and what a night for our Suncoasters.

I met a man Uncle Greg and his wife P.J. who are the house father and mother of the Home. It seems that he spent his childhood at the home and eventually graduated to be on his own. Now 24 years later, he felt he had to return and give something back to the place that had cared for him in his early years. Therefore, he and his wife have now taken up residence and intend to make the Faith Children's Home their life's work. That surely put a song in my heart!

The Silver Tongued Grey Headed Old Man.

Below are some of the fun children and Suncoast members had at our December Faith Children's Home Party.
